

SUFFS AND ANTIS LOOK FOR A BIG PUBLIC DEBATE

Mrs. Catt Asked to Meet Miss Rowe and Thresh Out the Issues Between the Women on Ratification.

NASHVILLE, Tenn., Aug. 6. (Sp.)—There was a prospect for a joint debate between women suffragists and anti-suffragists today in advance of action on the part of the legislature in considering the equal suffrage amendment, with the issuance of a challenge from anti-suffrage headquarters to Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt, of New York, to meet Miss Charlotte Rowe of Washington.

The inspiration for the challenge was a telegram sent to Gov. Cox by Mrs. Catt complaining that outside influences were at work to accomplish the defeat of the amendment. If the ladies can be matched for a contest it is expected that the public will be treated to a harrowing time as both women are able debaters and have fought for a number of years for and against woman suffrage.

In a communication to Mrs. Catt, Miss Margaret Brown and Miss Josephine Pearson, both Tennesseans, invited Mrs. Catt to meet Miss Rowe for a discussion of the issues. This letter was as follows:

"My dear Mrs. Catt: We have no objections whatever to your coming to Gov. Cox for help, but when you have made a sweeping general charge meant to discredit Tennessee men and women, and their distinguished invited guests, we demand a bit of particulars.

"In your telegram to Gov. Cox, you say that Tennessee sentiment favors ratification. Why then do you turn to help from the presidential candidate? But you go on to say that 'outsiders' are inspiring messages signed by Tennessee names, and your associates are publicly charging that the same sinister anti-suffrage influence in Delaware are also working in Tennessee.

"Therefore, we ask you the following fair questions:

"Do you desire to convey the impression to Gov. Cox, and to the country through the Associated Press, that the legal opinions of eminent Tennessee lawyers, like Judge Jos. C. Higgins, Judge G. N. Tillman, Judge Estill, Foster V. Brown, (suffragist) Judge R. P. Wilson, John W. Green, John J. Y. Brooks, Lee Brock, Norman Parrish, Thomas H. Malone, etc., are inspired by outsiders?

"Or is it that you wish to reflect upon the presence here of Mrs. James S. Pinckard, of Alabama, president general of our Southern Women's Rejection league representing twelve Southern states, who is the grand niece of John C. Calhoun?

"Or is it that you wish to reflect upon the presence here of Mrs. Buffin G. Pleasant, wife of the former governor of Louisiana, and daughter of Major General M. D. Ector, of the Army of the Tennessee, who had three horses shot under him at the battle of Lookout mountain?

"Or is it that you wish to reflect upon the presence here of Mrs. E. Rowe, of Washington, D. C., you mean when referring to outsiders who are inspiring us?

"Since it was she whose eloquent speeches in Delaware and Louisiana greatly influenced rejection, in spite of all the outside political pressure, secret pledges and card indexing that your associates could command, we invited her, for that reason, to take part in our campaign.

"You say you believe in 'equal rights.' Therefore, we ask you if there is any more reason why you should be here than Miss Rowe if 'outsiders' are all to be regarded as 'insiders'?

"We would not for the world convey the impression that we have any objection whatever to your own presence here, for Southern courtesy, as well as confidence that your presence here is helping us, would prevent our making any such objections. The point we make is simply that you, a New York woman voter, are hardly in a position to complain to Gov. Cox that outsiders are inspiring the people of Tennessee against ratification after you have been in this state some weeks yourself trying to inspire them in favor of it.

"Therefore, we are going to ask you, a woman from another state, to meet Miss Rowe, also from another state, in joint debate on this question of Tennessee ratification, so as to allow the people of Tennessee to decide for themselves as to who is more inspiring.

"Please do not give excuses or evasions for avoiding a debate with Miss Rowe. If you are afraid to meet her in public debate before the people of Tennessee after sending out a telegram reflecting upon her as an outsider, no excuse you can offer will be regarded by fair-minded Southern people as sufficient.

"If you will accept this challenge, please let us know at once, so that we may engage the Ryman auditorium for the occasion."

England, Ark., Men Fight; One May Die

PINE BLUFF, Ark., Aug. 6. (Sp.)—J. W. Gassaway, 34, insurance man of England, Ark., is here in a hospital in a critical condition, with a knife wound in his liver, another in his thigh, a fractured rib and a broken arm.

He was shot Tuesday afternoon at England by F. A. Parsley, 46, drayman, after Gassaway had called Parsley a liar. Gassaway accused Parsley of starting a rumor that he had been in jail during his absence from England and they quarreled about the matter and were taken before a justice of the peace and fined. Later the same day they quarreled again when Parsley fired four or five shots with results that may prove fatal to Gassaway.

Both men are married and Mrs. Gassaway is here with her husband, but Mrs. Parsley and family had left on a visit to relatives. Parsley is in jail in Lenoire awaiting the outcome of the wounds inflicted on Gassaway.

Woodard of this city, arrived here over the Illinois Central railroad from France, where he died in the service of his country early in the fall of 1918. Young Woodard died of influenza. An impressive funeral service was conducted at Poplar Grove cemetery here by Rev. Grover C. McMillin, of Trimble, and Rev. C. E. Hutchinson, pastor of the Newbern Baptist church. Young Woodard is the third body to be returned here for burial. He is survived by his parents and other relatives here.

PINE BLUFF, Ark.—The funeral of the late Lottison Salles, county and probate clerk, who died suddenly on Monday, was conducted Wednesday afternoon by the Rev. J. L. Norris, pastor of First Presbyterian church, assisted by Pine Bluff Lodge F. and A. M.

PATTERSON TALKS ON EVILS OF UNITED STATES

National looseness as to divorce and the financial policy were given as the two biggest drawbacks to our national uplift by Ex-Gov. Malcolm R. Patterson, who addressed the Retail Credit Men's association at its semi-monthly meeting at the Hotel Gayoso Thursday. He said that the United States government has the loosest financial system of any large nation, stating that the extravagance and waste of the nation have a great influence on the people. He said it is not the fault of congress, but rather of the method of distributing the money for national use.

Gov. Patterson also touched on the divorce evil, saying that when certain localities in the country get their advertising and publicity from the fact that divorces are easy to get there, it is time for the government to take a hand and make national divorce laws, rather than let the state individually deal with this problem. He stated uniformity in divorce laws is a necessity. Entertainment was furnished by Miss Alice McLaughlin, who sang "Apple Blossoms." The meeting was presided over by President George A. Lawo, who, according to Patterson, has a fine chance of landing the national presidency at the convention to be held soon in Detroit.

JORDAN TALKS ON TAXES.

At the weekly luncheon of the Memphis Civitan club at the Hotel Gayoso Friday, R. L. Jordan was principal speaker. He spoke on taxation, a subject with which he is thoroughly conversant, having been chairman of city equalization board.

A report was made by the committee appointed to arrange a ball game between the Civitan and the Kiwanis clubs, which said that the affair would be soon ready.

Baby Girl Wins 3 First Prizes

Parents of Louisiana's "Champion Baby" raised her on Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin.

THERE is always a good deal of sickness in the summer months, due to the hot weather. The heat is especially severe on babies and children, and often it interferes with their development and growth. They lose appetite, pass restless nights, suffer from indigestion, and finally constipation.

In the hot Southern States mothers give a combination of simple laxative herbs with pepsin, at the first symptom of constipation. This formula is known to druggists as Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, and they have sold it under that name for a quarter of a century. It is now the sole medicinal relief in thousands of families.

Little Dorothy Boylan knows what real hot weather is ten months of the year. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry H. Boylan, and lives at 210 North Alexander St., in New Orleans. She has won three successive first prizes as the "Grand Champion Baby of Louisiana," and her parents say the only medicine they have ever given her

FREE Millions of people of all ages suffer from occasional or chronic constipation. Let them send name and address to Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 512 Washington Street, Monticello, Ill., for a free sample bottle of his wonderful Syrup Pepsin. 8 million bottles were bought at drug stores last year, the largest sale in the world.

"STATES' RIGHTS" OF NORTH CAROLINA OBJECT

RALEIGH, N. C., Aug. 6.—Declaring the Southern states are "not more political pawns in national politics and will resist firmly further interference of national leaders," the States' Rights Defense League of North Carolina, through its president, William H. Williamson, yesterday telegraphed James M. Cox, Democratic presidential nominee, protesting against "outside pressure" on Southern legislatures to bring about ratification of the federal suffrage amendment.

DUKE TO WED.

MADRID, Aug. 6.—Announcement of the betrothal of the duke of Alba and the marchesa San Vincente del Barco, daughter of the duke of Alagoa, is expected soon, according to a report from Santander. The marriage, it is said, probably will take place late in September at the Spanish embassy in London.
